

Snowshoeing

„Enjoy our region’s idyllic beauty in a very special way – and discover the feeling of inner well-being and relaxing!”

Snowshoeing means: walking in the middle of untouched and freshly snow-covered forests and over glittering snow fields into the Jungfrau Region’s idyllic valleys. In the middle of an absolutely quiet nature, you get the feeling of being far away from any civilisation. Snowshoeing is the old-fashioned way of winter hiking, like in the old times hunters, farmers and trappers used to do in winter. There is no need to learn any kind of snowshoeing technique. Already during the first hour, you will get a feeling of being happy and relaxed.
